

Class Lesson #1 Outline: ‘Ancient Kemet, The Moors & The Maafa: Understanding The Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade’ 2-10-24

Instructor: Michael Imhotep founder of The African History Network

We can't start studying our history in SLAVERY. Even when we study the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade, which is important to study, we can't start in 1619 or in the 1440s when the Portuguese get involved. We have to understand the history chronologically and deal with the 800 year occupation of Europe by the Africans known as the Moors who enter into the Iberian Peninsula, today known as Spain and Portugal, from North Africa in 711A.D. This course not only deals with the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade but thousands of years of history that leads up to the Slave Trade of African people taking place.

This Online Course was created by Historian, Michael Imhotep founder of The African History Network and host of ‘The African History Network Show’. It consists of over 200 slides, 80 - 100 articles, 15 books as reference (you don't need to purchase any of these books) video clips and interviews Historian Michael Imhotep has done with various Historians and Scholars like Prof. James Small, Prof. Kaba Kamene, Anthony Browder, Runoko Rashidi and more. You will be able to ask question during the LIVE Class Sessions with the text chat option.
